People behind the project

Supertech Ltd – one of India's leading real estate developers came into inception close to 25 years ago. The company has been instrumental in redefining home buying for any customer around the country. With more than 60,000 satisfied customers & more than 20,000 residences delivered, the company is scaling new heights each day with more than 50 ongoing projects in different locations around the country.

With such scale and size comes an opportunity to redefine oneself each day. Global partners like Armani Casa, Yoo Studios - UK, Disney & ACC are but a few of the coveted names in the list that the company boasts of today. Like the pre-cast technology setup, the company is fast diversifying while also supporting various causes like Kaksha – an education initiative for the under-privileged.
